Deaconess Celeste Eubanks, is the Director of Leadership Strategies for the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church in Montgomery, AL. A native of Slidell, LA, Celeste was christened and nurtured in the Christian faith at Mt. Olive African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Celeste received her Bachelors degree in Business Administration from the University of Southern Mississippi and her Master's degree in Communication and Leadership Studies from Gonzaga University (Spokane, WA). Upon graduating from USM, Celeste accepted a job in Mobile, AL working as a software developer for CPSI (a healthcare information systems company), and later transitioned to Human Resources at the same company.

While in Mobile, Celeste became a member of Toulminville-Warren St. United Methodist Church and later joined St. John United Methodist Church and served there until moving to Montgomery. It was while serving at St. John that Celeste answered her call to become a Deaconess in the United Methodist Church – making a lifetime commitment to full-time vocation in ministries of love, justice, and service. Celeste was consecrated as a Deaconess in May 2018 at the United Methodist Women's Assembly in Columbus, OH.

Celeste is an active volunteer with Communities of Transformation and is a Wish Granter with Make-A-Wish Alabama. Additionally, she serves on the Alabama-West Florida Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, the Tuskegee Wesley Board of Directors, and the Quad-W Missional Outreach Board of Directors. Celeste enjoys spending time with her family and friends and loves serving the church and in her local community.

Jeremy and Amy Messer live in Mobile, AL with their 2 children, Aiden and Ansley. They both grew up in musical families and enjoy leading worship through song. Jeremy is a high school band director and serves in the 151st Army National Guard Band. Amy works as an administrative assistant at a local church as well as a virtual assistant for a family counseling practice. She spends her Thursday nights volunteering with the Mobile site of Communities of Transformation. The Messers are members of the worship ministry at Redemption Church in Saraland, AL.

CELEBRATING THE PAST YEAR

ANNUAL DAY 2020

Our 2020 Annual Day was held in the Dothan District at Enterprise First UMC on February 14-15th, 2020. Rev. Sarah Shaver was an amazing speaker who gave a great presentation on the theme “In His Service.”

There was a lot of great feedback about her message and her hands-on activity of creating a prayer chain. The event wouldn't have been possible without the help of the unit at Enterprise First UMC. We were thankful for Bishop Graves and the District Superintendents who celebrated with us and held communion for our congregation on Saturday morning. We were able to celebrate the life of our sisters who passed away in 2019.

We didn't know then that the fellowship time with amazing cinnamon buns would be our last in person gathering we would have that year. Looking back, I believe it made that time even more special. We look forward to celebrating our Annual Day in person in 2021!

Katy Wrona, AWF-UMW Vice President

COOPERATIVE MISSION u 2020 Report - There's Far More Here

So, we're not giving up. How could we! Even though on the outside it often looks like things are falling apart on us, on the inside, where God is making new life, not a day goes by without [God's] unfolding grace. [...] There's far more here than meets the eye. The things we see now are here today, gone tomorrow. But the things we can't see now will last forever. 2 Corinthians 4:16-18 The Message (MSG)

We have known and felt what it is like when “things are falling apart on us.” We have experienced a great unraveling that has shifted, quite literally, everything. Could there be, as 2 Corinthians put it, “far more here than meets the eye?” Mission u, like many activities in our lives, has moved online. While virtual, we are still creating spaces for spiritual community, lifelong friendships, lessons that change us and our communities, and spiritual practices that arrive when we need them most. In a time when it looks like things are falling apart on us, God's grace is still unfolding, and life is being made new.

Indeed: There's far more here than meets the eye. Will you join us? At our upcoming Mission u, we will examine anxiety, the culture of violence that impacts children in and out of schools, and how we as God's people can deepen our moral witness and respond faithfully.

Blessings,
Laurel Akin, Mission u 2021 Dean

SPIRITUAL ENRICHMENT RETREAT 2020 Report

Our 2020 SER event was held as a virtual event due to the COVID-19 pandemic. We were grateful to have Bishop Graves give two wonderful messages on our theme “In His Service”. We enjoyed music from around the conference, greetings from UMW officers around the conference, short devotions, and prayer meditation workshop. Although it was a brand-new process, many from around the conference enjoyed the SER videos on our new YouTube channel.

DISTRICT 2020 Reports

Dothan District

United Methodist Women continue to be an active and viable source of “Faith, Hope, and Love in Action” throughout our communities. Our purpose is to grow in our understanding of and willingness to participate in the global ministries of the church. Our guiding scripture for this year, “Those who have served well gain a good standing and considerable confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.” 1 Timothy 3:13 (CEB) gave us hope to make the best of 2020. While the COVID pandemic slowed down our activities, it did not stop us. In February we hosted the AWF-UMW Annual Day at Enterprise First UMC in February. After the “stay in place” orders, our District Team continued to meet via Zoom which gave us the opportunity to connect and to plan activities. In September we hosted a Zoom Spiritual Day event that combined our focus on “A Living Wage for All” and spiritual growth through social action. In October we continued our transformative education with a 4-part mission study on Finding Peace in an Anxious World. We opened this study to all the districts in our conference. We supported educational opportunities through our Mattie Kolb Scholarship to a deserving woman in the district. Our goal through our United Methodist Women activities is to grow spiritually, become more deeply rooted in Christ, and to put our faith into action. Our work will continue—even through the unknown challenges of a pandemic.

Mobile District

The Mobile District of United Methodist Women in 2020 fulfilled the purpose in many ways. Here is a brief synopsis we had 16 active units that contributed funds toward or pledge to the conference. These contributions allowed us to help women, children, and youth locally and globally. We had units hold zoom meetings, in person meetings, no bake bake sales, share a virtual cup of tea, and an in-person bazaar. We as a district supported Dumas Wesley, Sybil Smith village, local schools through backpack programs, and a linen closet. We had several readers involved in the reading program. We also supported UMCOR which is an annual event sponsored by Christ UMW. Several of the local United Methodist Women participated in SER both locally and conference wide. We also supported our local churches with our presence on Sunday mornings and all other bible study events. The Mobile District is very active and hopes that 2021 will bring us back to together in person soon.

Montgomery-Opelika District

United Methodist Women in the Montgomery-Opelika District put their faith into action in 2020, despite COVID, by donating generously to the global, national, and regional missions of the United Methodist Church, to UMCOR, and to their congregations' mission outreach, including food banks and one or more domestic violence intervention centers. UMW members participated virtually in the Bishop's Conversations on Race, in church study groups on racism in church and society, and how to fight racism today. They listened to Faith Talks with missionaries, wrote encouraging letters to missionaries, and heard former missionaries speak (in person before COVID) at the Call to Prayer and Self-Denial. Some UMW circles met regularly on Zoom, learning about such urgent issues as helping at-risk young women in high school stay in school and avoid a path to incarceration. Two congregations, Opelika UMC and Auburn UMC, contributed financially to help the non-profit One Voice Shelter Coalition purchase, renovate, and transform a former assisted living facility into a beautiful homeless shelter for working women, which opened this week as seven women and two young children moved in! UMW district and Conference officers participated in leadership development.

Pensacola District

The year 2020 gave the Pensacola District United Methodist Women a challenge but we moved forward by following our UMW Purpose and Vision. We not only met our pledge to the National Organization and our conference but surpassed it. Through the generosity of these women, we put our faith into action by participation in the global ministries of the church, our National UMW social action issues plus support of our local ministries. As United Methodist Women we give thoughtfully in order to make a difference in the lives of women, youth and children around the world.

NELL CHANCE AWARD 2021

This award is named for Nell Chance as a way to remember her and the many ways she believed in our mission as United Methodist Women. She was a moving force in the mission work of United Methodist Women of the Alabama West Florida Conference for many years and a passionate believer in our mission to women, children and youth. Nell was a member of Monroeville United Methodist Women and the United Methodist Church in Monroeville, Alabama. During her adult life, she served in many positions not only in her local unit, but district, conference and jurisdiction as well.

The award is open to all ages who are currently active in United Methodist Women. A brief letter should be submitted by individuals or mission teams giving biographical information and explanation of how this person has demonstrated the standards set by Nell Chance. A photo of the nominee, if available, included with the letter will be most helpful. The letter should be sent to Membership Nurture and Outreach Coordinator by December 31.

AWF United Methodist Women do not share personal information online

We believe personal online information should be limited. Safety precautions online must contain the wisdom of self-protection and security of our counterparts as we work together for good for all. When you share your whereabouts to the social media world, you are putting yourself at risk. Many people on social networks are not aware that a tweet or status update may also expose their current location. When you share your location, this is risky because it advises any potential thieves that you may not be home.

In like manner, when someone visits our website and sees there is a meeting scheduled at Blue Lake or First Church, etc., and your address has been shared in a newsletter, that lets any potential thieves know you may not be at home. The best method of being accessible to your counterparts and mission team members is to always ask them to find your contact information in the conference and/or district directories.

We use a special method of protecting your e-mail address on AWF-UMW.org. While officer names are listed beneath areas of responsibility on the webpages, clicking "Contact Us" is received and forwarded as appropriate. We know you are a busy person do not need to be distracted by unnecessary and unwanted e-mail contacts.

REPORTS OF THE MISSION COORDINATORS

MEMBERSHIP NURTURE & OUTREACH

NURTURE is so important when we are isolated and feeling anxious. What we can do to stay in touch with our UMW sisters?

- * Keep the leadership team informed about needs and concerns of membership.
- * Include time and space for women to share their concerns and experiences with one another at gatherings (online and in person) of United Methodist Women members.
- * Actively stay in touch with and support members through life's joys and struggles.
- * Organize ways to stay in touch through letters, phone calls, video calls, outside visits

SOCIAL ACTION

For more than 150 years, Methodist women organized for mission have worked in the name of Jesus to take positions on social justice issues and change legislation, systems, structures and practices considered unjust and oppressive. These bold foremothers advocated to end lynching, improve women's health, raise women's status in society, organize for fair wages and benefits for workers and families and adopt the Charter for Racial Justice. Today, we continue to build on this foundation as we work to interrupt the school -to-prison pipeline and ensure energy that is just for all. As United Methodist Women of the 21st century, we are called to be bold in our witness, working to dismantle systems of oppression and build, together, a better world. United Methodist Women national office staff are ready to support you as you move forward with one or more campaigns in your conference.

EDUCATION & INTERPRETATION

Empowering women to understand, interpret, and participate in the mission of United Methodist Women as well as to engage in fundraising are the highest priorities of the E&I coordinator. Showing our mission dollars at work through words and pictures helps members form emotional bonds to the ministries and understand why we give. Many of you have creative fundraisers to augment unit pledges. To provide more ideas, Jessica Tulloch, the National United Methodist Women staff coordinator, created a Dropbox repository for E&I Coordinators to archive useful resources for fundraising and program ideas. Please contact your district E&I or me for more information.

Promoting transformative educational opportunities is another responsibility of this position. While the global pandemic necessitated physical distancing, reading books at home and sharing with friends and family through email, phone, video calls or social media can be a way to relax and engage in the world without leaving home. During the first few months of the stay-at-home orders, I found it difficult to focus on my reading. However, because I participate in a Reading Program book club, I was motivated to complete a book each month. Keeping to a routine brought balance in my life. The club readers were able to pass books between members and borrow books from the public library with their curbside pickup program. Some ordered books as well as listened to the Faith Talks live on Zoom or later as a podcast. District participation in the Reading Program has a lot of room for improvement. Only 5% of members participated in 2020, compared to 8% of members in 2019. I challenge each district to reach a goal of at least 10% of members reading at least one book in 2021. To make it easier, the 2021-2022 Reading Program Catalog will cover 2 years and have expanded options for reading selections. Listening to 3 Faith Talks, a monthly podcast available at unitedmethodistwomen.org/faithtalks, will now count as 2 books for Spiritual Growth in the Reading Program. All of the Mission studies also count as bonus books (2 books in a designated category). To encourage reading to others, children and youth selections will also count for the program. There are also audio books for some of the selections for those who may prefer or need that option. By reading to someone or recording one of the shorter Reading Program books for a member who can no longer read a book, you would be sharing the joy of learning and earning credit for 2 readers. Be creative in growing your readership while educating others.

Another responsibility of the E&I is promoting the Mission Today criteria. Our challenge for 2021 will be to encourage more units to complete their Mission Today Report. Mission Today unit participation for 2020 was 53%, down by 6 points from 2019. I am looking forward to 2021 and seeing our United Methodist Women involved in transformative education, supporting the mission and actively involved In God's Service.
