SPRITUAL ENRICHMENT RETREAT
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19th - SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21st @ BLUE LAKE
THEME: HOPE
GUEST SPEAKER: REV. DR. CONNIE SHELTON

HEBREWS 6:19-20
“This HOPE we have as an anchor of the soul, a HOPE both sure and steadfast and one which enters within the veil, where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a high priest forever.”
PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Reflections and Thankfulness

I recently experienced a season of God's plan for my personal spiritual growth and I probably saw it coming but just like always, wasn't ready for what was about to happen and just flat-out missed the sign. I became a care-giver for my Mother during her longtime heart illness that eventually (and recently) took her to her heavenly home; sharing those daily and nightly duties with my sisters and brothers (yes, my two brothers did some daytime sitting with Mother.) I'm going to be honest here, not one United Methodist Women response magazine, prayer calendar or reading program book or article prepared me for what transformation happened in a "blink of an eye" in our family.

Our National United Methodist Women Handbook doesn't have a section for equipping a person for care-giving of our parent. The medical professionals try to give subtle changes that we should look for. Most times we don't even talk about "care-giving" and politicians certainly don't address why medical care, costs and "gaps" exist for the elderly in our nation. That's what you think about while waiting for the Rx at the drug store or wrapping the sore on the leg before it gets infected...the list is endless.

Let me tell you what God did? He surrounded me with a prayerful, grace-filled and compassionate gathering of friends that lifted me in prayer throughout the first overnight back at home with Mother to the last breath she took as she left this earth. Those friends are United Methodist Women I've come to know and appreciate as - friends and prayer warriors, not just the women who come to the same UMW meeting I attend.

So, why should you plan to attend Spiritual Enrichment Retreat at Blue Lake in October? What's in it for you? Not because of my story in this article. Not even because of more tragic stories you've heard or even experienced yourself with care-giving. A great gathering of some mission-minded friends is happening and you may not want to miss it. God is transforming the World as we meet, one person at a time. And He's planning a spiritual growth session just for you!

Join in the "creative, supportive Fellowship" October 19-21, 2018 at Blue Lake for our annual Spiritual Enrichment Retreat.

Conference President

Alabama/West Florida-United Methodist Women (AWF-UMW)

Your Conference Executive Committee met in July in Dothan, AL. The Committee on Program met to share information and your comments on the Annual Day evaluations. We take your suggestions seriously and worked to address each and come up with solutions to ensure we move in the right direction in 2019. Our recommendations were presented to the whole team for approval.

We then turned the meeting over to Tutti Johnson, Conference Spiritual Growth Coordinator who is well into plans for our Spiritual Enrichment Retreat October 19-21, 2018. Different duties were assigned to individuals on the Program Committee but rest assured Tutti has the program well under control. You will hear more from her in this issue of Alert.

By the time you read this we will have enjoyed Mission u not only for the studies presented but for being with friends from all over the conference. What a blessing to be part of United Methodist Women and the Purpose we support. See you at Blue Lake in October.

All District and Local Unit Vice Presidents, please contact me with any questions about your "Vice-President' Leadership role. The District Officer Training sessions are where you can learn about planning programs for Annual Day or Spiritual Enrichment; you may even be asked to organize a mission study or a workshop.

TREASURER’S REPORT

Give Thanks. Give Now.

We are a little more than half-way through our year, but our conference Pledge to Mission is only at 42% paid as of July 15th. Let me urge each local unit to not wait until the end of the year to send in at least half of the pledge you made to your district. There are several reasons why you shouldn’t wait: 1) The need from the mission agencies and advances that United Methodist Women support doesn’t all happen at the end of a calendar year, 2) It creates more work for your district and conference treasurer to have a mass influx of reports and money all come in mid-November as they too have deadlines, holidays and family gatherings, and 3) your belief in United Methodist Women and its mission is year-round, not just once a year. Our Conference Pledge is $121,450, but we have only received $50,607 to date.

Each district and the conference has received their 2017 audits back and each has passed. All your district treasurers have been good stewards of the funds that you have sent up the chain. The only notable recommendation was that many of our districts are giving their offerings at the district events to other agencies outside the United Methodist Women. It is okay for an individual and a local unit to donate funds to other agencies, but just like Red Cross wouldn’t make a donation to UMW; we shouldn’t be donating to other agencies at the district and conference level. All funds should go to your Pledge for Missions supporting only United Methodist Women. If you have a guest speaker, your standing rules require you to pay a set amount to that speaker, but not to the organization they represent. Your local unit can take that information from the speaker and send a check from the local unit or individual to that agency.

However, local units should remember that the primary mission of our organization is support of United Methodist Women and its agencies, scholarships, and initiatives. If you’d like to know more where the money is actually spent, please go to our national website: https://www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/finance.

I will be working in the next few months to try to figure out ways that we can donate on-line to our conference so that those that don’t want to “write” an old fashion check can make their pledge. We are also looking at other alternatives to better meet the needs of our younger members. If anyone has ideas on how to serve you better in the way we collect mission dollars, please don’t hesitate to let me or your district treasurer know.

We are also trying to be more transparent in our finances, so we voted at our July meeting to keep an updated chart of giving by districts on our Alabama West Florida Conference website: http://www.awfumw.org/. It will be updated at least quarterly, and I will try to get it out there monthly. Thank your district treasurers the next time you see them for doing a hard job and doing it well. All of our district treasurers are super and I appreciate them and their hard work very much.

On the Local Unit Remit Form that the local treasurer sends to the district treasurer, you will notice that there are two places to put Pledge money. One is the regular pledge each member has made and the other is for our Special Project “Change a Life”. This could be from a jar passed around at your regular meetings where members dump all their coins (and bills too) in. The money, although goes to your pledge, is to be reported separately and at our Annual Day in February 2019 (in Demopolis), we will light one candle for the number of minutes that money has raised to support the cost of missions for one minute. Since we are in this together and not one district competing against another, we will light just the one candle. Based on the latest audited and reported figures by National (2016) it costs $23.02 per minute to fund all of our missions across the world. How much can you and your unit give – five minutes ($115.10), ten minutes ($230.20), more? There will be a certificate of participation for each district that participates.
STANDING RULES

Upon review of the Alabama West Florida Conference of United Methodist Women Standing Rules, the committee determined that clarification was needed for the term of this position. Please note the recommended addition is printed in red.

The Committee on Standing Rules is recommending the following change:

III. COMMITTEES

2. There shall be a committee of district presidents.

   b. The committee shall elect it’s chair. Her tenure shall be for one year only.

Betty Helms, Chair
I would like to remind you of three things:

1. Spiritual Enrichment Retreat at Blue Lake is October 19-21. You will not want to miss the Reverend Dr. Connie Shelton. See the registration form in this ALERT issue or on the conference website.

2. Please be working on your Mission Today forms so we can get a count of Gold, Silver and Bronze awards. Also, Mission Study attendance needs to be reported for Local, District and Mission u Studies. District E and I Coordinators should make sure District Presidents have this information to complete their Consolidated Presidents’ forms to send to our Conference President, Debbie Bell. I need this same information, so please send it to me, as well. Thank you, in advance.

3. Please take a moment to check our Conference Website to see the statement regarding Mission Giving which contributes to Local Mission, Spiritual Formation, Programs for Membership Development and Outreach. Pledges are designated for Ministries with Women, Children and Youth and are prioritized by our national body. Our Handbook 2017-2020 has a section on Funding the Mission. The UMC Book of Discipline, 2016, also addresses this topic. Remember, District E and I Coordinators, this interpretation of where the money goes is part of your job description.

Thank you for all you do in the name of women, children and youth! Hope to see you at Blue Lake in October. Blessings,

Shirley Hodges
Education & Interpretation Coordinator
Here are the results of the Census Report for 2017:

The local unit leaders were asked more in-depth questions during the census geared to solicit responses that would inform the national office, conference and district leaders of the assets and needs of the local units.

Some summary info included: English was captured as our major language; Facebook was used 88.89% of reporting local units; the main form of communication for the local units reporting - email and "no" meeting tools available like go-to-meeting/free conference call/social media were in use. Some strategies reported being used to increase membership in the local unit included equally community relationship, creating a social media page and virtual units/circles. Of our 2017-2020 four social justice priorities maternal and child health stood out as a conference-wide priority.

The tools presented during the census captured that local units needed "connect to other units to share ideas and Fellowship" to further the work of United Methodist Women. The most used local unit activity to increase visibility in the church - the church bulletin-that frequency, only every month or 3 to 4 times a year! How the local unit was visible within the community-fundraisers and partnering with local government for advocacy.

Again, this is a snapshot of the results of strategy many of the local leaders notated. The tools for membership are available on the national website www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/member-resources

Please take time to check out the website for ideas to share within your local unit.

In 1941, the AWF-UMW membership total was 8,948; in 1967 we had 12,268 members. According to the annual district president report, the 2017 membership total is 3,612. To end, what are the strategy and priorities for membership going forward for our conference?

SECRETARY OF PROGRAM RESOURCES REPORT

Hope everyone has had a great summer and that you are enjoying some good Reading Program books. If you attending the recent Mission U, you know that there was an abundance of 2019 Reading Program Books, as well as some from 2018. You can always order them online and/or add to your Kindle. One of the 2019 Books under the Spiritual Growth Section is The Soulmaking Room by Dee Dee Risher. Ms. Risher is a freelance writer and editor. A cofounder of Philadelphia's Alternative Seminary, she serves on the board of the Karitas Foundation, which supports several community-based initiatives in Mexico. Shane Claiborne, who wrote the foreword for the book says, in part: "Her faith is not just about comforting the victims of injustice but also about driving a spike into the wheels of the machine that keeps running over people. While most Christians stay in the shallow end of the faith pool, Dee Dee invites you to wade in the water and get into the deep end where things are not as safe, not as crystal clear, and not as predictable." The book revolves around the story of the Shunammite woman who builds a holy room for God's prophet and then the author uses her own true story to tell of how today's world contains bigotry, loss, mistakes and reshaping. You will find lots to think about and reflect on and possibly change some of your thinking about what is going on in our world today and what you can do to change it. Enjoy!

Secretary of Program Resources

PROGRAM RESOURCES ALERT!

We have been advised by the head of Program Resources from National United Methodist Women in New York that a new procedure modeled after Scholastic Book sales is being put in place to be used in Resource Rooms at upcoming conference events. The consignment process we currently use is considered complex, time consuming and expensive. We will no longer have copies of Reading Program Books on hand, but you will be able to order whatever you would like. Order forms will be available at Spiritual Enrichment Retreat (SER). The completed forms will then be submitted to the processing center in Atlanta. They will ship your order directly to you and bill you for your items. This way you will not have to bring additional cash and checks with you to our conference events. This new procedure will specifically affect directly purchasing Reading Program books. We WILL have a few new Prayer Calendars and Program Books for purchase, but these, also, can be ordered the new way. The other thing to consider is that if you do not want to order your books this way, you can always order through Amazon or local booksellers. We will be on hand to answer any questions you may have about this new process. The National Staff are hoping that, in the long run, this will be more cost efficient for everyone. As we all know, sometimes change can be difficult, so we ask for your patience and understanding while we all get used to the new system.
SOCIAL ACTION REPORT

At Spiritual Enrichment Retreat in October we will elect some of the leaders for our Conference United Methodist Women. On November 6, we will vote for candidates in local, state, and federal elections. For this issue of the ALERT, I would like to share with you some highlights from the Action Alert issued on July 13, “ELECTING CANDIDATES COMMITTED TO TRANSFORMING THE LIVES OF WOMEN, GIRLS AND FAMILIES.” Please note that this is not an endorsement of any particular political party or candidate. Instead, it is designed to help us think through the issues and evaluate the candidates.

First there is “2018 Candidate Checklist: A Questionnaire for Candidates Seeking Election” for you to use while following this year’s election. Use these sample questions or ask others unique to your community and personal concerns.

The United Methodist Women Voter Guide explains why the midterm elections are so important!

Take Action: The Election Checklist can be used for taking suggested actions: (Please keep in mind that all candidates should be asked to explain his/her support or opposition to an issue.)

Download the 2018 Voters Rights Toolkit

All of these tools and more can be found at https://www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/election2018

“My vote is my voice ... and the voice of all who have struggled, so that I may have my voice.”

Please don’t waste your vote!

Laurel Akin, Deaconess
Social Action Coordinator

CARES AND CONCERNS

Winn Marsh is appointed Personal Concerns Coordinator for Alabama-West Florida Conference United Methodist Women. You may contact her at winnmarsh@aol.com or 850-624-9709 to request prayer for your personal concerns. Winn will share the information according to your wishes.
ELECTING UNITED METHODIST WOMEN OFFICERS TO LEAD IN OUR MISSION

Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Women Standing Rules. IV. Elections and Meetings.

The voting Body of the Annual Meeting of the conference organization shall be composed of the following:

One representative from each Local Unit
Conference Executive Committee / Bishop
District Executive Committees / District Superintendents
Directors of UMW residing within the conference / Officers of the Jurisdiction residing within the conference

Journal entry, retreat day....

In my many years of being a member in United Methodist Women I never really paid attention to the Standing Rules much. But when electing leaders to the offices for our mission for women, children and youth, I really should be more attentive. My participation in nominating and voting for a leadership team member requires some careful consideration. My Local Unit has only "ONE" vote and we must be attentive as the Local Unit, the District and the Conference team has some very specific duties and must work together for the mission. Each year as the election has been completed, the installation begins and near the end each officer "commits to the duties required in that officer role." But then there comes my part in the installation service. A statement and a question is placed before the membership body that's present, "Women gathered here, You who elected these women are called to be involved in the work of United Methodist Women, to support your leaders and work with them in our Purpose for God's mission - If you will accept your responsibilities as members of this unit, this district or this conference respond by saying "I will, with God's help."

I just committed to support and work with these officers. I may have agreed in haste and wanting to get this part of the meeting over with! But, how else will I become involved in missions? This volunteer team of leaders (I just agreed to help) will guide and direct the massive work of the United Methodist Women. We can't do it alone, we will need God's help.

In the coming months, many United Methodist Women members interested in Leadership roles in their Local Units, District and Conference Teams will be nominated, elected and installed as a United Methodist Women officer. They will need your help to organize this meaningful group for the Purpose of mission for women, children and youth.

Particularly, please be attentive to the Saturday morning Business Session during Spiritual Enrichment Retreat, October 19-21, 2018 at Blue Lake Assembly Grounds. This is when we will receive the Committee on Nominations report of Slate of Conference Officers for the next term; we'll begin the election and end with the installation. As President, I will read and conduct the election process (much of what's captured in the journal entry above) to the membership present. I will explain how the voting will happen (either of these: acclamation, standing, raising hand, paper ballots) and I will explain the nominations from the floor process and all it includes. Please determine your Local Unit delegate who will vote before you arrive for the event/meeting. Only those attending mentioned in our Standing Rules, will vote. There are no absentee votes.

[See the Spiritual Enrichment Retreat Registration form for a delegate checkbox]

Your participation is very important and we'll need your attention to the election process, from delegate seating to the voting acclamation determined.

Debbie Bell, President
Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Women
Things are moving right along on preparations for the SER in October. Our speaker, Rev. Connie Shelton is familiar, having been with us for the Pensacola Tapestry as well as the Demopolis Tapestry. We’ve got three breakout sessions scheduled for Saturday afternoon:

1. Jean Creswell will be teaching a Course on Computers and those who are interested in her class need to send her questions about things they want to learn - this is NOT just “another” computer class, but Jean does need to know specific things we are interested in so that she can be prepared. Also those participating will need to bring their laptops.

2. Joyce Genz and Jay Locker will be teaching a class on Crocheting Plastic Grocery Bags into Mats that are useful to the homeless and provide a means to dispose of refuse we don’t need to just bury. Homeless women use these to avoid sleeping on the ground or directly on concrete and not only do they serve that purpose, they can also be washed out and kept clean to make life easier for these women and girls. Participants in this class will need to save their plastic bags to bring along with crochet needles size F – J.

3. The final breakout is an opportunity to get outside for a Biblically-based Scavenger Hunt around the grounds at Blue Lake. Those who choose this class will be given instructions to help them along their way, and there will be some surprises to be found. We have listened to your complaints about sessions being too short to complete anything so we’re trying this format. Those who don’t choose to participate can take a nap, read, or just enjoy the peace we find at Blue Lake.

Another change is in our music. I’m bringing all new songs! (Just kidding!). We will get our music from the United Methodist Hymnals in the Chapel. Think of this as “an old-fashioned singing.” Pat Dodge will be leading our music.

Attached you will find the 2018 Spiritual Enrichment Retreat registration form and instructions. The event takes place at Blue Lake on October 19-21. Please note the last day (Oct. 10th) to send in your registration and money without incurring a late fee. Blue Lake requires (by our contract) that we send in the names, room assignments and meals two weeks prior to the event.

The cost of the event depends on whether you come in Friday or Saturday and which meals you will be partaking. The most common registration is rooming with someone in Linwood, coming in on Friday afternoon and leaving on Sunday. That cost would be $124.50 for lodging, meals and registration fee. The Center Section is less expensive but has common bathrooms for all that wing. If you wish a roommate and don’t have one listed, we will match you up with someone. However, if you are extremely cold or hot natured, please write a note on the form so we won’t match you with someone of opposite tastes. The Linwood section also fills up faster, so the first to register will receive those as they come in.

If you have any questions about the form, the costs or the classes, please just email Jean Creswell. I hope that everyone will forward to others in their local unit and district so they might be included. The form is also on our website: http://www.awf-umw.org/

Debbie Bell Bio

Skills within United Methodist Women Leadership: Local Unit President - 2 years / District President - 4 years / Conference President - current. My skills for this Leadership role will continue to support our conference membership to the National organization legacy endeavor in mission. In the past six (6) years as conference/district president I have been setting annual goals for the Leadership Team members and myself. I have a strong, decisive skill when determining our annual actions for women, children and youth. I study and review our Standing Rules and Policies and the national Handbook for clarity and direction. As required in this presiding role, I initiate and delegate the duties and actions of the Leadership Team members. Professional Background: I am and have been retired from the “world” workforce since 2003. As I worked in the papermaking industry for 26 years, my most impressive position I held was when I took opportunity to be involved in the safety program as a coordinator for the safety of our workforce and workplace. I organized and conducted safety meetings, investigated injuries and conducted safety inspections to name a few duties. Family: My husband, Richard (or Ricky as all others call him) and I have been married for 28 years; our dog Thor lets us live with him. We are both very involved with Christ United Methodist Church in Mobile, AL and respond to volunteer opportunities to grow our attention to God’s will and direction. Contributions? Or, Why re-elect Debbie as president again? If I am given opportunity to continue this role as the conference president, I will continue to take on the tasks for our mission and provide direction to the conference officers, the District and Local Unit Leadership. Their tasks require attention to lead, gather members, organize, plan, serve, prepare and complete programs for mission – I will continue to provide advice and training ideas for that massive work. I’ll help recruit other leaders to listen to God’s call for the mission of United Methodist Women. I will continue to restate the Purpose of United Methodist Women through my Faith, Hope and Love in Action.

SOCIAL ACTION DAYS FOR GIRLS PROJECT

Great news! We are quickly mobilizing as the Dothan District UMW Mission Team to sew Days for Girls feminine products that will help women and girls in third world countries lead more productive and healthier lives. Through this work, not only women and girls, but also their communities, will grow stronger. Drop-out rates in a Uganda school went from 36% to 8% after one year of access to Days for Girls kits. We can make a difference in a very meaningful and practical way.

Our first sewing day was Saturday, May 19, 2018, at St. Luke United Methodist Church in Enterprise. We expected only a few women, but we had twenty-two! Every pattern was cut exactly, every stitch important, and every detail added with love.

We learned about the project with a video and introduction to the product and materials; then, we created an assembly line to include tracing patterns, cutting, basting, assembling, sewing the shields, ironing, quality checks and adding snaps. We went for the “gold standard,” measuring carefully for an excellent result.

Since that day, we have completed well over 100 shields, twice that many liners, and have many fabric pieces cut and ready to sew at the next workshop. We have branched out from shields and liners to add drawstring bags. Our next goal is to put together Supreme Days for Girls Kits, which include a small collection of hygiene items.

Patsy Chalker from St. Luke UMC has been officially added as a co-leader for our team. Patsy has put in many hours of sewing for this project. We have passed all quality inspections and we are an official team for Days for Girls. We’re now on the map!

We got together Days for Girls Sewing Day, which was held July 19, 2018, at Tabernacle United Methodist Church.

The Dothan District UMW Mission Team has taken on an exciting project in Days for Girls. Please join us as we continue on this journey.

Yours in Christ,
Jean Johnson, Social Action Coordinator, 334-406-7964
Montgomery/Opelika District Seeks to Help Stop Plastic Pollution

April 28, 2918 saw over thirty members of Montgomery/Opelika District United Methodist Women attending a Mission Study on Climate Justice. Aldersgate UMW in Montgomery, AL hosted the event with Judith Canty presenting an opening devotional in the courtyard with the church’s huge globe rolling around in the yard. The ladies of Aldersgate provided a wonderful array of snacks as well as lunch soup and sandwiches throughout the day.

Debbie Bracewell presented a very well-researched class that opened our eyes to several problems in our environment. At Judith’s suggestion, we opted to follow-up with a campaign to raise awareness of the plastic pollution in our world. As one method, we are encouraging the use of fabric shopping bags instead of the plastic bags given at stores. Each member present received an orange fabric shopping bag to remind them to spread the word about the plastic pollution problem.

Montgomery/Opelika District challenges all other districts to join with us to find other methods of reducing use of plastic products and/or recycling as much plastic as possible. Together we can make a difference.

In His Service,
June Headrick
Montgomery/Opalika District President

Debbie Bush,
Conference Communications Coordinator

I am so thrilled to place our first two (2) Districts (Dothan & Montgomery/Opelika) who have submitted articles for Maternal and Child Health and Climate Justice for the “Around the Conference Cooler”!

This has been an idea of mine since I started doing the Newsletter almost two years ago! I have more ideas for the Newsletter to better the communications within the Conference that I hope to be able to implement in the future.

The News Around the Conference Cooler needs to be what the Local, District or Conference is doing in relation to our Mission and our Issue Priorities:

- Economic Inequality
- Climate Justice
- Criminalization of Communities of Color
- Maternal and Child Health

Any news that you have on these issues please let me know so that I can let others know about it. If you have questions, please do not hesitate to contact me by phone or by email.
